Lowellrocks.com plans benefit for ailing boy

The Lowell Sun

The popular Greater Lowell music Web site Lowellrocks.com and local band Moonshine recently announced a benefit concert for a 6-year-old boy suffering with a brain stem tumor.

The April 9 concert will be held at Dracut's Lakeview Lounge and will feature cover bands Shuvelhed, Moonshine, Going Commando and Ript. The Lakeview Lounge will also hold a raffle during the daylong event. Prizes include a custom-built guitar and satellite radio equipment.

The plight of Justin Bissett of Litchfield, N.H., first came to Lowellrocks.com administrator Randy "Big Daddy" Breton's attention on the site's message board. Breton and Moonshine decided they needed to do something and raising money for high medical bills seemed like the best thing to do.

Doors open at 1 p.m. and the show starts at 2 p.m. Tickets are $5.

Donations can also be sent to The Justin Bissett Fund c/o TD Banknorth, 62 Nashua Road, Londonderry, N.H. 03053.
